REQUEST FOR RETURN OF APPLICATION
AS UNACCEPTABLE FOR FILING

GAF Broadcasting Company, Inc. ("GAF"), licensee of WNCN(FM), New York, New York, hereby requests that the above-referenced application filed by The Fidelio Group, Inc. ("Fidelio") be returned as unacceptable for filing. The Fidelio application, if accepted for filing, would be mutually exclusive with GAF's application for renewal of WNCN. As shall be demonstrated below, the Fidelio application must be returned as unacceptable for filing due to untimeliness.

As set forth on its transmittal letter, the Fidelio application was sent by courier for filing on May 2, 1991. It was assigned file number BPH-910502MQ, which indicates that the application was received on May 2, 1991.^{1/} Moreover, the fee processing form was date stamped to reflect receipt of the Application in Pittsburgh by the Mellon Bank on May 2, 1991. See Attachment 1.

Section 73.3516(e) of the Commission's rules states, in relevant part, as follows:

(e) An application for a construction permit for a new broadcast station . . . will not be accepted for filing if it is mutually exclusive with an application for renewal of license of an existing broadcast station unless it is tendered for filing by the end of the first day of the last full calendar month of the expiring license term.

As set forth in Sec. 73.1020(a)(17) of the Commission's rules, WNCN's current license term expires on June 1, 1991. Thus, any applications mutually exclusive with WNCN's renewal application were due on or before May 1, 1991. Fidelio's application was untimely and cannot be accepted for filing. See, e.g., Spanish Int'l Communications Corp., 63 RR 2d 263 (1987).

The instant situation is clearly distinguishable from Caldwell Television Associates, Ltd., 53 RR 2d 1686 (1983), recon. denied, FCC 83-462 (Oct. 18, 1983). In that case, the

^{1/} According to the "FAIR" report, the Fidelio application was originally assigned file number BPH-910503MQ, which was subsequently changed to BPH-910502MQ. The original file number could have been a typographical error or applicant delivered its application to a courier service on the day before the cut-off date. The courier was unable to deliver the application for filing on the cut-off date due to inclement weather conditions. Thus, the Commission found "unusual and compelling circumstances" warranting a waiver of the cut-off rule to accept the application filed one day late. Fidelio, however, failed to even deliver its application to the courier service until the day after the cut-off date. Moreover, the Commission has subsequently overturned Caldwell, and thus now requires strict adherence to its cut-off deadlines. Public

WHEREFORE, it is respectfully submitted that the Fidelio application must be returned as unacceptable for filing.

Respectfully submitted,

Declaration of Todd F. Silbergeld

I, Todd F. Silbergeld, hereby declare under penalty of perjury that the following is true and correct:

I am a law student employed as a summer associate at the law firm of Fleischman and Walsh, P.C.

On May 23, 1991, I inspected the files maintained by the Office of the Secretary of the Federal Communications Commission which contain copies of all filings made with the Secretary's Office from May 1, 1991 until May 22, 1991. I inspected every back-up filing made thus far during that month. I did not and could not locate any filing made up to that point during the month of May, 1991 by "The Fidelio Group, Inc."

Additionally, on May 28, 1991, I examined the filings maintained by the Secretary's Office for the month of April, 1991. I was informed by Ms. Ginny Simms of the Office of the Secretary that after the last day of each month only the fee processing form of a back-up filing is retained by that Office. I did not find a fee processing form or FCC Form 155 for The Fidelio Group, Inc. I also re-examined all of the filings made during the month of May, 1991. Again, there was no application filed by The Fidelio Group, Inc.

Executed this 29th day of May, 1991.
